

Effective today, the IKA affiliates its next national member association, the Federazione Kitesurf Italiana. The number of national associations joining the International Kiteboarding Class Association is growing, and all national associations are invited to join in, to get their national events included into the world ranking and to become member of the nation associations sub-committee to give further input for the development of the class.